Who's that taking the checkered flag in the big races?

The driver with the Tiger in his tank, of course! This year, for instance, the Tiger (special racing fuel supplied by Humble Oil & Refining Company) has been a familiar figure on the U.S.A.C. Championship Racing Circuit. He's ridden with the top drivers to the checkered flag throughout the racing season*.

And the same people who blend

These events were conducted under the auspices of the United States Auto Club.

a winning racing fuel also blend new Enco Extra gasoline for your car . . . to "Put a Tiger in Your Tank!" New Enco Extra now has an extra punch! You keep using it, you get extra power, extra mileage. New Enco Extra is the first and only gasoline of its kind anywhere in the world!

Humble Oil & Refining Company . . .
America's Leading Energy Company

For example: A. J. Foyt won the Indianapolis 500 with a Tiger in his tank!
